71st YEAR OF QUALITY TOYS

Hubley has been producing quality toys since 1894. Many oldsters remember the cast iron trucks, circus wagons, fire engines and kitchen ranges of those early years. Many have watched the progression from cast iron toys to die cast metal and plastic.

To stay in business this long proves the long time quality and acceptance of Hubley toys. We are proud of our accomplishments, length of service to children of several generations. We pledge our future to the continuation of durable toys with play value.
